Art Wins Victory Over Prudishness

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Pagan, the statue of a young woman in the nude, even to the bobbed hair remained upon her pedestal in the Metropolitan Museum of Art today and if she could have spoken she probably would have said:

"Some victory for art." The victory was won by the friends of "The Pagan" over the Architectural League which sought to have the statue removed on the ground it was lewd and indecent. A jury of seven art experts voted four to three that "The Pagan" was all to the good morally. The sculptor who made the statue is Charles Carey Rumsey, son-in-law of the late E. H. Harriman.

PROPAGANDISTS ARE LABORING TO BRING ALLIED DEMANDS TO GERMAN CONCEPT

BERLIN, March 22.—Official German propagandists are laboring to bring home to the average German citizen the real vastness of the sum of indemnity demanded by the allies—226,000,000,000 gold marks. The people at large have not shown any undue excitement over the extent of the allies' demands, so the German officials decided upon a campaign to picture to them how much 226,000,000,000 gold marks means in reality.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung printed a picture of 19 railroad trains each made up of cars filled with coal and each train stretching from earth to moon. Under the picture was the following reading matter:

"A ton of coal is worth 20 gold marks. This means that if we were to deliver 226,000,000,000 gold marks worth of coal we would have to mine more than 11,300,000,000 tons of coal, which at the 1920 production rate in Germany would require 57 years. This amount of coal would require 750,000,000 railway cars or in other words a train so long that it could be broken up into 19 trains each one long enough to reach from this planet to the moon."

The Hamburger Neueste Nachrichten declares that if 226,000,000,000 gold marks were reduced to the value of the present paper mark it would be 2,458,000,000,000 paper marks. The (Continued on Page Eight)

BOY STOWAWAY'S CHAINED TO DECK OF OCEAN VESSEL

Jon Jacobson, eating lunch while chained to rail of Eldena.

Due to the recent ruling of the state department, Jon Jacobson, fifteen-year-old stowaway, may have to spend five years aboard the ocean steamer Eldena, now docked at New York. He boarded the boat at Bizerta, Tunis. The ship's captain does not plan to return to Tunis. Under the law the boy cannot enter the U. S. until he is at least five years hence. As the captain faces a penalty if the stowaway escapes the captain keeps the lad chained to the ship's rail.

BUTTER, EGGS, FLOUR AND WHEAT PRICES HIT THE TOBOGGAN

Unlimited quantities of strictly fresh Coshocton-co Easter eggs were coming into the local market Tuesday. The farmers were taking a drop of 3 cents on the dozen while the merchant is making the same drop to the consumer. The grocerymen are paying 22 cents per dozen for eggs and the customers are buying from the merchants at 27 cents per dozen. Retail prices on newly laid eggs are expected to drop below 27 cents before the end of the week, it was predicted.

Other produce on the market is on the decline in price. Country butter can be purchased by the local dealer at 42 cents per pound. This is a drop of 3 cents. The consumer can now secure country butter from the dealer at 50 cents per pound, making a 5 cent drop on the pound. The producer is selling creamery butter to the dealer at 45 cents per pound, a drop of 5 cents on the pound. The grocerymen retails it at 54 cents per pound, a drop to the customer of 2 cents.

The grain market was subject to a big change the first of the week. Flour took a slump of 50 cents on the barrel. It is now retailing at $12 per barrel. Wheat followed suit in the grain market. It took a drop of 15 cents on the bushel. Wheat now sells at $1.50 per bushel.

AMERICA ADDS MONSTER SHIP TO HER FLEET

Battleship Colorado, Sent Down Ways Today Equal of Largest Afloat

OTHERS ARE BUILDING Six of Even Larger Type Are Provided For In Naval Bill of 1916

CAMDEN, N. J., March 22.—The United States added the second of the world's greatest battleships to her fleet today with the launching here of the super-dreadnaught Colorado at the New York shipbuilding yards into the waters of the Delaware river.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and third of his family to officiate at the launching of an American warship gave the signal which sent the giant craft on its journey down the ways, and Mrs. Max Melville, of Denver, Colo., broke a bottle of champagne over the bow and gave the ship its name.

In size and power, the Colorado is surpassed by no battleship afloat and is equalled by only one other battleship, her sister ship the Maryland, launched at Newport News in March, 1920. Two other ships of the same class, the Washington and West Virginia are now under construction.

The chief characteristics of the Colorado are: Displacement, 22,600 tons; length, 624 feet; speed 21 knots; main battery eight 16-inch guns; secondary battery fourteen 5-inch guns; four 3-inch anti-aircraft guns; two submerged torpedo tubes and enlisted complement, 1,448 men.

The nearest rivals of the Colorado and her sister ship are the Japanese battleships of the Nagato class, and the British ships of the Queen Elizabeth class. The Nagato class ships of which there are three, have a displacement of 29,000 tons, while the ships of the Queen Elizabeth type, of which there are five, have a displacement of only 25,500 tons. Both the Nagato and the Queen Elizabeth are armed with 15-inch guns. While Great Britain has no battleship at present equal to the Colorado in all around equipment, she possesses one battleship which is larger, the Hood, which is the largest battleship now afloat.

The Hood is 360 feet long, has a displacement of 41,200 tons, a speed of 21 knots and a main armament of eight 15-inch guns.

The American battle cruiser Constellation, the keel of which was laid in August, 1920, will be 874 feet long and of 42,500 tons displacement, and will have a speed of 32.5 knots and an armament of eight 15-inch guns.

The Hood at first glance appears to be more formidable than the Colorado, she is not a battleship, but a battle cruiser and aside from her weaker gun power, her armor is scarcely one-third the thickness of that which protects the Colorado.

In addition to the six battle cruisers of the Constellation class the naval bill of 1916 authorized six battleships of even greater size and power than the Colorado type. They are the Iowa, South Dakota, Montana, North Carolina, Indiana and Massachusetts. Contracts have been let for all of these except the Massachusetts, and the keels of the Iowa, South Dakota and Montana have been laid. These battleships will have a length (Continued on Page Eight)

GREENWICH VILLAGE TEA IS LIKE TRINITROTOLUOL

GERMANY IS HAPPY OVER THE SILESIAN PLEBISCITE VICTORY

BERLIN, March 22.—The German press was jubilant today over the victory over Poland in the Upper Silesian plebiscite. The only dissenting note came from Theodor Wolff, editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, who warned Germany that "France will disregard the outcome and attempt to present a consolation tidbit of German soil to Poland."

"The plebiscite was a victory for Prussian state consciousness," said the Deutsche Zeitung.

The Vossische Zeitung declared Germany would do well to carry out the program of separating upper Silesia from Prussia saying, "It is important to adopt a program to conciliate the Polish minority which has just been handed back to us."

Hugo Sinn's newspaper Deutsch Allgemeine Zeitung in commenting on the outcome said:

"After this demonstration of the popular will it is to be taken for granted that all of Upper Silesia will remain German."

"Let us rejoice in this overwhelming victory showing that Upper Silesia is overwhelmingly for Germany," said the conservative newspaper Tagessche Rundschau.

A correspondent who has just returned from Upper Silesia said that many of the plebiscite policemen were seen drunk during the balloting on Sunday.

At Nikolai the Germans brot in many sick and aged persons to vote. They were in carriages under police guard.

Firing was heard near Nikolai giving rise to rumors that fighting had broken out, but it proved to be target practice by French troops with trench mortars and hand grenades.

PARIS, March 22.—The French press insisted today that Upper Silesia should be divided between Germany and Poland despite the result of Sunday's plebiscite which gave the district to Germany.

"The allies should refuse to return Upper Silesia to Germany until Germany fulfills the treaty," said L'Homme Libre.

FILES SUIT FOR $2000 AGAINST AN ADMINISTRATOR

Lloyd Wine has filed a suit in common pleas court for the recovery of $2,000 from A. J. Stewart, of West Lafayette and $7.65 from the West Lafayette National bank.

Lloyd Wine is the administrator of the estate of Sarah Jane Stewart, who died September 4, 1919. He claims that after her death A. J. Stewart unlawfully took possession of and disposed of $2,000 worth of household goods and chattels belonging to the estate.

The plaintiff claims that the West Lafayette National bank has possession of $5.65 belonging to the estate of Sarah Jane Stewart, that was deposited by A. J. Stewart in his own name.

He asks judgment of $2,000 from Stewart and $5.65 from the bank.

In the answer to the petition, the defendant denies the allegations made by the plaintiff.

Elwood Murphy, of Columbus and Shepherd and Burkle represent the plaintiff and Lloyd Leech and B. F. Enos, of Cambridge are attorneys for the defendant.

WARSAW MAN DIES IN NINETY-SECOND YEAR; LEAVES 72 LIVING PROGENY

Alphis Bailey, aged 91, one of the oldest residents of Warsaw died at his home Tuesday morning at 6:29 following a two weeks' illness from heart trouble and dropsy. He is survived by forty grandchildren, twenty three great-grandchildren and nine children.

Mr. Bailey was born in Virginia, May 16, 1830. He came to Ohio at the age of 18 and settled in the village where he died.

Mr. Bailey married Miss Harriet Poole on March 22, 1863. To this union nine children were born, all of whom, with the widow, survive. They are: Samuel, Chili; William, Hudson, O.; Joseph, Cleveland; Mrs. Mary Vansickle and Mrs. William Murray both of Coshocton; Mrs. James Stiles, Mrs. Charles Kaser, Jean and Alonzo all of Warsaw.

Mr. Bailey was a man who was respected by everyone. He was of genial, generous disposition and enjoyed a large circle of friends. He was especially known for his upright character.

The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the late home in Warsaw. Burial will be made at Valley View cemetery.

George W. Gray, of Millersburg has filed a damage claim in common pleas court against the Coshocton County Agricultural Society asking for $10,631.75 for injuries received at the 1920 county fair when a truck ran over him.

In his petition, Gray says that he was leaning on the rear end of a truck used by the Agricultural Society to drag the race track, while the truck was standing still at the side of the track. He claims that the driver of the truck, without warning, cranked the truck which happened to be in gear and he was knocked down, the truck running over his legs and body.

Gray's right foot was crushed, the ligaments of his right knee torn, his hip skinned, and three right ribs broken, according to his petition.

Gray says that his injuries were caused solely by the negligence of the driver in the employ of the defendant. They carelessly left the truck in gear and cranked it without investigation, causing the truck to run without a driver, he asserts.

He says that he has become lame and sick as a result of the accident and has sustained permanent injuries to his right leg.

The plaintiff claims that he has spent $219 for medical attention, $425 for nursing and has suffered $10,000 damages to his nervous system, a total of $10,631.75 for which he asks judgment.

His attorneys are Paul C. Laybourne, of Akron, and C. J. Fisher, of Millersburg.

MILLIONAIRES HAVE DESERTED THE CUTE AND CAPTIVATING GIRLS OF THE CHORUS IS COMPLAINT OF NEW YORK SHOW GIRLS

NEW YORK, March 21.—A great change has come over the American chorus girl life.

An absence of stage door "Johnnies," a dearth of wealthy broker friends and a scarcity of so-called "wild" parties are quite noticeable this year, according to girls in New York's musical shows. They hotly resented today implied aspersions cast upon members of their profession by recent divorce suits involving financiers, in which "ladies of the ensemble" acted as the hypotenuse of the eternal triangle.

"I don't know what's happened this year," said little Peggy Sletner of the "Passing Show." "One hardly ever sees a 'Johnny' now at the stage door. This last year the girls have received an exceptionally small number of cards from admirers in the audience and as for millionaires, why they're all gone and deserted the chorus girls this year. I have not come out with a millionaire since New Year's.

"The only type we see these days at the rear door, is the young clerk or salesman who has saved up for years to buy his first machine and who wants to show it off.

"Maybe its prohibition that did it. Without liquor, what fun is a party?" Miss Sletner wanted to know. "Any-way chorus girls don't miss millionaires, 'cause most of them have their own sweethearts and husbands and most of them are real good girls.

"Before I came from London," Claire Hooper of the "Midnight Rounders" said, "I heard a lot about broker friends and stage exit lizards, but since I arrived in New York 6 months ago, I haven't seen one. Not one. Maybe chorus girls of past years enjoyed the luxuries but where are they now? The chorus girl of today has to work very hard for a living."

Many girls expressed similar opinions. There was but one exception. Perhaps Elaine Courtney, a "front liner" in the winter garden show was more lucky.

"You'd be surprised," she declared. "If I mentioned the names of some of the big stock brokers and well known Wall Street men, men before the public eye, who have been doing the investing this year. They send their wives and daughters to Palm Beach for the winter to get them out of the way. Then they give 'wild' dances in their apartments on the drive."

POOR GERMANY CONTAINS BUT 1 BILLIONAIRE

And the Fact That Post-War Germany Can Create Such a Personage is of Unusual Interest at This Time

LONDON, March 19.—England is vitally interested in Germany's first billionaire. France is even more keenly interested and makes the fact that the post-war Germany can create a billionaire a part of her argument that "Germany Can Pay."

He is Hugo Stinnes, coal and industrial magnate, publisher extraordinary and if some reports are to be believed virtual dictator of Germany today.

He came into international prominence in the sense that he first came prominently into the world news during the Spa conference when he stood up with sharpness and bluntness against the allied conference, then attempting regulation and increase of Germany's coal deliveries under the peace treaty.

Controls Sixty Newspapers. But before that he had been of daily growing importance in European news, for he was emerging from the comparative obscurity of his financial dominance into the world of politics, through his purchase of newspapers throughout Germany. He is popularly credited with control of more than sixty newspapers.

It is no secret that the intelligence services of the allies has had him under review, so to speak, long before this. They promptly made further inquiries when he launched his newspaper buying campaign. And since that time the press of England has become a self-appointed watchdog of the doings of the German Rockefeller. His movements are frequently chronicled. His new combines of capital and industrial resources are always printed. They have been numerous. It is perhaps no exaggeration to estimate that at least once a week, during the past few months, some item of news has come out of Germany which tells of an important financial move by Stinnes, each time along the trust building line so familiar in America a score of years or more ago. There are even reports that the workers of the various Stinnes undertakings are trying form, not trades unions in the ordinary sense of uniting workers of similar trade into single countrywide unions, but an amalgamation, or a federation of all the local unions whose members are working for Stinnes.

Is Dominating Factor Taken in the mass, the fragmentary information about the German super-magnate paints a picture of awesome size. Whatever the governments think, and they at least consider him a dominating factor in European affairs, the press is keeping tabs on Stinnes as tho he were Wilhelm himself.

The Evening Standard, diplomatic correspondent, in fact, goes so far as to say that he is the one man in Germany today who has power and influence comparable to that of the ex-Kaiser in the old days of his Potsdam sojourn.

The Daily Chronicle, official organ of the present coalition government of England, thru its Berlin correspondent, casts frequent limelight on the new billionaire, also carrying on simultaneously a series of revelations regarding Germany's revival of trade. It records a record year on the stock exchange, millions being poured thru investments into new projects, the formation of a shipping trust and many more items of similar kind.

The Times, adopting the French view, declares that the fact that Germany can produce Stinnes, Meneses, Manns, Thuesens and Krupps, of vast and increasing income and who are piling up new capital, proves that Germany can pay a large sum in indemnities.

Other papers point out that before the war there were scarcely more than a hundred Germans, outside the Hohenzollern family, rated as worth a million marks or more, while now there are more than a thousand.

Without bias it may be said that it is difficult to weigh and determine the truth of everything one reads, or is told, in these days.

But out of it all, the one safe bet is that Hugo Stinnes Germany's first billionaire, is an object of much keen interest, careful observation and much speculation in England.

NUN FOUNDER OF FIRST SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN GIRLS IN HAWAII DIES IN HONOLULU AT AGE OF 92

HONOLULU, Hawaii, March 19.—With the record of having opened the first Christian school for girls in Honolulu and educating three generations of Hawaiian girls, Sister Beatrice, of St. Andrew's Priory in this city, died recently at the age of ninety-two years.

Sister Beatrice came to Honolulu in 1867 at the instigation of Kamehameha IV, and his consort, Queen Emma, who desired that a school under the auspices of the English Church be established for Hawaiian girls. She came here with four other sisters from England, crossing the Isthmus of Panama. Of the five in the party only Sister Albertina is now living.

There had been a girls' school under Bishop Stanley at Lahaina, on the island of Hawaii, some years before, and this was moved to Honolulu as soon as buildings were provided on land which had been given to the Church of England by King Kamehameha IV. On Ascension Day, May 30, 1867, St. Andrew's Priory School for Girls was opened and Sister Beatrice slept in one of the school buildings that night.

Since her arrival in Hawaii Sister Beatrice had left the island only once, in 1901, when she journeyed to San Francisco to attend the general convention of the Episcopal Church in that city.

She was born at St. Erth, Hayle, Cornwall, England, and in early life became a member of the Sisterhood of the Holy Trinity, which had been founded at Davenport.

The "articles" provided that Sutermeister would not "smoke, drink, swear or chew." He was allowed, under the agreement, to say, "Oh, Gracious," once in a while if properly perturbed.

He also promised not to "carry mud into the house." He was not to look at his wife for more than thirty minutes at a time unless she gave him special permission.

The Sutermeisters, who attracted attention in May, 1915, by their "articles of specifications of matrimonial felicity," tried for six years to work. Property owned by Sutermeister and happiness, but failed, according to a settlement of the suit.

Here are some figures submitted by the students in regard to the budget.

Lawrence, Kan. Mar. 21.—The "ideal" family budget, for clothing a family of five, is approximately 16 per cent of the yearly income, according to tests made by students of the home economics department of the University of Kansas. This is possible, however, the students declare, only when the housewife makes her own dresses, the children's clothing and the husband's shirts and pajamas.

The "16 per cent" provides for every bit of clothing for all members of the family. The "economics" students assert that it should be sufficient if the housewife does her own sewing, makes the young children's clothes from the discarded apparel of the older ones and makes her purchases at end-of-season sales.

Here are some figures submitted by the students in regard to the budget.

A family of five with an income of $2,400 should not spend more than $384 a year for clothes, dividing the amount in this manner: man, $116.40; woman, $102.30; boy of nine years, $41.06; girl of six years, $38.78; girl of three years, $33.72.

This leaves a balance of $41.74 for incidentals such as collar buttons, hairpins and thread.

Between thirty and thirty-five a woman's chance of marrying is 15 1/2 per cent; between thirty-five and forty it is 3 3/4 per cent, according to an arbitrary table made by a mere man.

How Can You Tell If Your Eyes Are Normal?

The answer is that there is but one sure way to determine it, which is by having the eyes given a thorough test by a competent optometrist. We can do that for you. And we can supply you with glasses that will give you normal vision as nearly as it can be done. Surely that is worth while.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF DRY LAW AGAIN UNDER FIRE TODAY

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The constitutionality of the prohibition amendment was attacked again in the United States supreme court today, this time from an entirely new angle.

Attorneys defending J. J. Dillon, a San Francisco drayman, who was convicted in the federal courts of California for transporting liquor thru the streets, filed a petition today in the court in which they contended that the condition in the prohibition amendment which required its ratification within eight years after submission to the states in itself makes the amendment invalid.

The eight years condition, was oddly enough proposed by Senator Warren C. Harding of Ohio, now president of the United States.

The attorneys set forth the contention in the brief that the attaching of a ratification period violated a provision of the constitution governing ratification of amendments.

GERMAN VOTE WAS 61 PER CENT, YET SHOULD BE MORE

BERLIN, March 21.—Germany got about 61 per cent of the vote cast in the upper Silesian plebiscite on Sunday, it was estimated by the foreign office this afternoon. Germany will contest the result at Pless and Rybnik, where the Poles were successful, claiming that "Polish terrorism" prevented many Germans from voting.

The foreign office has already begun the preparation of an official memorandum contending that Germany must retain the districts of Pless and Rybnik as an economic necessity.

It is estimated that nearly 1,200,000 votes were cast on Sunday, for Germany 760,000; for Poland 450,000. Germany claims the German mine workers were cowed at Pless and Rybnik, and feared to go to the polls.

HOOVER SHOES AT RUSSIAN TRADING

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A decidedly pessimistic viewpoint of the possibilities of trade with Bolshevik Russia was taken today by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover in a public statement on Russian conditions.

Russian trade would be of but little value, Hoover said, because the Russians have nothing to offer. Their production has been paralyzed so that they have few commodities to offer for the world and their cash assets—consisting of gold, platinum and jewelry—are so small that there would be no expectation of continued trade after these had been expended.

PUSSYFOOT JOHNSON MAY SUCCEED KRAMER

COLUMBUS, March 22.—That W. E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, well known in the United States and Europe as a dry worker, is being considered at Washington to succeed former state representative John F. Kramer, Mansfield, as United States prohibition commissioner is the report current here.

Johnson whose home is at Westerville, near here, is ill at Hampton, Iowa. His wife today is enroute to his bedside. His condition is not deemed dangerous.

WHEELER CANNOT UNDERSTAND HOW BEER IS MEDICINE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Wayne B. Wheeler, directing head of the Anti-Saloon League of America, simply can't conceive of beer being medicine. He thinks there is a dark gentleman beneath the cord wood.

"No state prohibition law ever recognized beer as medicine. The United States Pharmacopoeia never recognized beer as medicine," and he intimated the Anti-Saloon League, never, never, never will.

BIGGEST SCANDALS OF STILLMAN CASE ARE YET TO COME

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 22.—The legal curtains which have obscured certain portions of the Stillman scandal, New York's most sensational divorce case are to be torn aside before a supreme court justice here Wednesday.

At a hearing on that day it is expected that allegations will be made by Mrs. Fifi Potter Stillman against her multi-millionaire husband, James A. Stillman, some of which already have been barred, linking his name with the paternity of a chorus girl's child, and other charges which have only been hinted at, will be spread upon the court records.

GIRL STUDENT IS ATTACKED IN HER BED AND BEATEN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 22.—Miss E. L. Morse, 20, a technology student, was beaten almost into unconsciousness in her bed today by an unidentified man who stood on a box outside her window. The man beat the girl with a brick pulled her hair and slapped her face but made no attempt to enter the room or to rob her.

The police do not know whether the attacker was a robber an avenging suitor or a maniac.

CLARA SIGNS UP FOR TWO YEARS OF POSING FOR FILM

ARDMORE, Okla., March 22.—Clara Smith Hamon, acquitted Thursday of the alleged murder of Jake L. Hamon, today signed a two year contract to enter the "movies."

She will appear on the silver screen under the banner of the Oklahoma Moving Picture Co. of Oklahoma City.

Under terms of the contract she will receive $25,000 in cash, as advance payment and fifty per cent of the profits from the company. Chas. A. Coakley, her attorney, announced this afternoon to the International News Service.

DAUGHERTY READS REVIEW OF CASE AGAINST MR. DEBS

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Attorney General Daugherty spent Sunday reading the voluminous records in the case of E. V. Debs. When he returned to the department of justice Monday he continued his study of the case, particularly the various angles of it bearing upon the possibility of commutation of sentence.

All the department of justice officials declared that the attorney general's examination of the case at the suggestion of the president may not be concluded for several days.

One or more phases of the case may be discussed tomorrow at the cabinet meeting.

The belief in some quarters was that the new attorney general may recommend Debs' release thru a commutation of his sentence.

STORIES OF AGED AMERICAN DEBT TO FRANCE ARE FAKE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Stories published in Parisian papers to the effect that the United States owes France some 90,000,000 francs dating back to the days of the American revolution were characterized as absurd today by treasury department officials.

A thorough search of the treasury records, said assistant secretary Kelley, "shows no unpaid obligations to France of any kind."

Kelley is in charge of the department of foreign loans and accounts.

TIME TO FACE THE FACTS

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments, I was said to possess, I was encouraged to try Dr. Williams' Wonderful Remedy, seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for it. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will relieve or money refunded."

RAILROAD STRIKERS ARE BACK AT WORK

MEXICO CITY, March 22.—Eight thousand striking railroaders returned to work on Sunday and most of the remainder are expected back today, according to the newspaper Excelsior. Some groups still held out, refusing to accept the settlement reached by the government with the federation of railway workers. The government is reported to be planning to spend $5,000,000 in the United States for new locomotives and other equipment for the national lines.

WHY GROW OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME?

It isn't years alone that make one old. Many folks are younger at 70 than others are at 50. A lame, bent back; stiff, aching joints, rheumatic pains, bad eyesight, and bladder irregularities are often due to kidney weakness and not advancing years. Don't let weak kidneys age you. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have made life more comfortable for thousands of elderly folks. Ask your neighbor!

HERE'S A COSHOCTON CASE. Mrs. M. Bowen, 145 N. Fifth St., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backaches. I had dizzy headaches, too. Government Before Party

HOW often have all of us heard some such expressions as these: "I am a Republican and as such I will work and vote for Mr. Blank's election. I opposed him before the primary, but he's on the ticket now and I'm for him," or, "As a Democrat I feel bound to support Mr. Blank. I did not think before he was nominated he was the right man for the office, but that's all over now. He is the party's nominee and I will do all I can to secure his election."

Such expressions are so common in American politics that we attach little significance to them, but we submit they are the expressions of PARTY MEN and not of AMERICANS. As party men there is nothing left for this class of citizens to say. For a party man to say anything else is to lose caste. The ritual of politics requires that the party man play the game, even at the expense of his own mental integrity and the ultimate welfare of his city, state or nation.

Yet this spirit displays the ethics of the gang, the moral code of the freebooter. Translated into action, this philosophy is the cohesive force which keeps political machines assembled and functioning. Without it, political machines could not have been formed in the first place, or brot into existence, they could not last for any length of time. It is nothing else than the old tribal or gang code transplanted into a field where it is possible to do infinite mischief.

The politician's stake is in the party, not in the country. His fortune is inseparably linked with the party. The party to him is the highest good, the first consideration in social and political affairs. His thots before, during and after political campaigns in relation to the country are vague and unimpressive and his moral obligations in this respect rest lightly. Temporary conditions may arise when party success means little to the politician, but ultimately party success will yield to him its personal reward. At least it means the possibility of reward to him and the sure exclusion of politicians in the opposing party.

The politician's opposition to the nomination of this or that candidate before the primary may be based on selfish personal grounds or it may be based on high ethical grounds and his criticisms morally unanswerable. But it is all the same if this particular candidate wins. Repudiate him in the primary if possible. Advance legitimate or unfair reasons for his defeat. But once nominated the code of the gang demands that words hasty or truthful be swallowed, the past forgotten and all effort made to elect him to office.

If the politician's instincts are no higher than the instincts of the gang, he is to that extent excusable. At least he is "looking out for No. One." He may not land anything substantial if a candidate he has opposed for the nomination is elected, altho that by no means always follows. But at least he has no chance at all if the opposition candidate wins. So to the practical mind of the politician there is only one practical course to follow.

So much by way of extenuation for the politician. But how about the average voter? The former may have been guided by the best light afforded by his gang instinct and training. But the vast majority of us are not politicians, have nothing to expect by way of party reward and are supposed to profit most materially and spiritually by the best possible governmental administration we can obtain. We may have party affiliations, but these are only nominal and rest lightly. So far as spoils and patronage are concerned we are wholly indifferent. To this vast majority of just plain, everyday American citizens it cannot make any difference whether the mayor of the city in which we live or our county auditor is a Democrat or Republican.

What the rank and file of all parties want, or rather what they need, is efficient, honest public service and it is the individual and not the party that gives it. In other words, the most of us have no stake at all in any political party, BUT WE ALL HAVE A VITAL STAKE IN CLEAN, EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT. If our public affairs are capably managed we all profit, just as we all suffer in purse and social environment if they are badly managed.

There may be an excuse for the politician's fidelity to his party, tho at best it is a lame one. But there are a wealth of reasons why we should all be faithful to the cause of good government and in every local contest, like the approaching mayoralty primary and election in Ohio cities, the rank and file of both parties can have no possible reason for loyalty to party other than to see that our influence and vote is used to nominate the best candidate. But we do all have a fundamental interest in the best possible municipal government and if we oppose a candidate for nomination in our particular party because we do not consider him fit for the office, then it is only ordinary sense that we oppose him on the same grounds should he secure the nomination.

In the long run he is the best party man who refuses to sanction a bad nomination. If there were enough Republicans and Democrats in Coshocton-co who could be relied on to boit the party ticket every time an unfit nomination were made, it would be the best political insurance the two parties could have. Partisanship is the bane of America's political life and the sooner we purge our natures of this gang instinct the cheaper will our government be and the better place will our common country be in which to found a home and rear a family.

SAFE OR SORRY

"I'm sorry as a man can be," the motorist explained, when he had run down Mr. Chee, and left him maimed and sprained. "I'm sure I would not strip the fur from any walking gent; I would not have such things occur for fifty-seven cents." But Mr. Chee, with busted bones, goes home-ward in a crate, and he exclaims, in wailing tones: "Your sorrow comes too late! Had you but watched the road ahead, maintaining lawful speed, I would not have a broken head, my person would not bleed. You did not care just where you went, you teetered left and right, and now my collar bone is bent, my whiskers are a sight!" The motorist leaves Mr. Chee and heaves a heartick sigh, and for a week or maybe three he'll drive with cautious eye. With earnest care he will advance on streets where commerce thrives, and give pedestrians a chance to save their mispent lives. But soon he'll weary of a pace that's safe but deadly slow, and then again we'll see him chase despising death and woe. And tho he's punched by peeters hold, he still will swoot and zip; when once the speed germ gets a hold, it won't rest us gimp.

WOOSTER, March 2.—Capt. C. P. Foss, of this city, who has just returned from a 3-months' trip thru England, France and Belgium, had no trouble in locating places where his company—G, of the 15th infantry—saw some of its fiercest fighting.

"I was even able to find the very hole where my orderly and myself spent the night before the armistice," he stated. "It was along the Escourt river, in Belgium. The spot looks even more devastated now than it did when we left it."

MARTINS FERRI, March 21.—Theft of a skirt from a local store resulted in fines of $200 each for Joseph Dras and William Warren, who claim to be Spaniards. They were spotted as they left the store by two men who saw a skirt protruding from beneath one of their coats. Clyde Carroll gave chase and Ira Gemas notified the police. Captured after guns were pulled Dras and Warren were taken to Belmont county jail at St. Clairsville to serve out the fines. Gemas and Carroll were presented with "medals" in the form of dog tags by members of the police force.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, March 2.—Louis Striech and William N. Brailly, plaintiff and defendant, respectively, in a $10,000 damage case in the common pleas court, each won damages after a two day trial. Striech alleged he was damaged $10,000 worth when beaten by Brailly, an undertaker. The latter filed a cross petition. The jury gave each $1 in its verdict.

A search resulted in the body of the girl being found. Despite an extended search and offers of rewards, the fiend continues at large.

Yellow candles in crystal holders and baskets of yellow jockuils were artistically arranged to decorate the tables at the Mother-Daughter banquet Monday, in United Brethren church. Miniature baskets, shaped like yellow Easter flowers, were filled with candies and given as favors, while hand painted cards marked places for the 150 guests. Attractive and painted programs were presented those enjoying the occasion and a most interesting entertainment was given. Miss Ruth Leavengood presided as toastmistress and was especially clever in this role. Miss Leona Denzer favored her hearers with a beautiful violin solo, followed by a very interesting talk, "Our Mothers," from Miss Frances Orr.

Mrs. J. S. Rosenberg responded with a splendid address to the girls, comparing their life to that of a rose, keeping pure and sweet. She urged the necessity of development along the four lines, mental, physical, spiritual and social. And was most enthusiastically received.

Miss Ernestine Cookson gave an immensely pleasing address: "The Girl of 1921." She treated of her responsibilities to her mother and the mother's duties toward the daughter. Miss Cookson is student secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of Ohio University, Athens, and was decidedly well fitted to speak along such lines. Miss Margaret Robson, local artist, gave a piano solo and Miss LaVera Eolen sang a very pretty piece. A quartette by the girls concluded the program.

Lafo-Lots will meet Wednesday evening. Don't forget the hour, 7:30 and arrange to enjoy the evening with us.

Easter Sunday at 4 o'clock, in first Presbyterian church, the recognition ceremony for the Blue Triangle club will take place. All girls, members of any one of the clubs affiliated with the Y. will take the candle service, which is an unusually pretty and effective service. We are hoping the general public will drop in for the hour and share our service with us.

MARY PICKFORD URGES DRESS REFORM, THEN SCORES ALL REFORMERS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—"Cob-web silk hosiery, short dresses, high heeled shoes and low necked waists should not be worn on the streets. The afternoon shopping district parade is a disgrace."

In this manner "America's sweetest heart" Mary Pickford (Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks) today scored dame fashion and her latest decrees.

"Present day styles destroy illusions and kill romance," said "Little Mary." "The average girl of today has not the shapely ankle or foot that is becoming with short skirts. In fact it seems they have weak ankles."

"The styles of 1850 and 1860 were much more dainty, attractive and even practical than those of today. And make no exception to the old hoop skirt, either. Shop and sales girls make a mistake in trying to dress like women of wealth. To do that they have to buy cheaper and tawdry material. 'Silks' should not be worn on the street except by middle-aged women. Lisle or woolen stockings and simple frocks should be good enough for any one."

"Evening dresses should always have sleeves. Every evening dress I have has sleeves of some kind."

"Women should dress according to what makes them appear best. By no means should they allow dame fashion tell them what to wear."

Mary did not know she was dressed "fashion" when interviewed, but appeared in a near dark blue serge dress, that was neither cut short nor cut "low." She expressed emphatic ideas on other matters as well as fashion, such as American life, politics, motion picture censorship and life in foreign countries.

"I don't know a whole lot about politics—except that of the motion picture world—but am making it my business to study it," she declared. "Give women power and she will develop responsibility and results."

"American people take their work too seriously. They forget the greatest thing in life is the social side of it and many lose it in their work. They are not pleasure seekers enough and do not indulge in enough relaxation. Another thing they do not take enough exercise. If some of the young girls would walk more they would have less use for rouge. Real American life is not found in the Cosmo-politan cities. Every large city in Europe is just the same as the ones in this country. America is like all countries. The real life of the people is found in the small villages and hamlets," said Mary.

Asked about censoring the movies, Miss Pickford had little to say. "There are too many reformers to day," she said. "I guess pretty soon they will start reforming the Bible and Shakespeare."

"American people can think for themselves and do not need a small body of men to tell them what they should or should not see at the movie houses."

'Tisn't What You'd Like But What You Get, That Counts

NEW YORK, March 22.—When Kate Tedford Hickie was arraigned before Judge MacIntyre in general sessions court on the charge of criminal libel the court announced that as she had no attorney present one would be assigned for her and asked her if she had any preference.

"Yes, I would like Charles Evans Hughes," replied the defendant.

CLEMENCEAU IS CONCERNED ONLY WHEN EULOGIZED

PARIS, March 22.—Former Premier Clemenceau who has just returned from a tiger hunting trip in India refused to comment upon the criticisms of himself written by Robert Lansing, former American secretary of state and member of the American delegation to the peace conference.

Mr. Lansing had said that M. Clemenceau was a cynical and domineering figure.

"When anyone speaks ill of me that is all right. It is only when anyone speaks good of me that I begin to worry," he said.

Asked if he would re-enter political life the "Tiger" replied: "I saw Buddhist gods in India. They eat cross legged men concerning themselves with the affairs of others. That is the policy I intend to pursue."

Rehearsals Nightly For Legion's Revue

A black-face quartet, composed of some of the best singers in Ralph Courtwright Post, will be one of the feature attractions of the American Legion Revue of 1921, to be presented at the Sixth Street theatre March 23 and 24 by Coshocton's ex-service men.

Coshocton has heard many good local talent quartets in the past, but it is hoped that the one that will be heard in the American Legion show next week will eclipse anything in the past. Rehearsals are being held nightly, and the management of the revue promises lovers of male harmony something entirely different.

Plainfield Man In Successful Business

W. R. Phelps, formerly of Plainfield Kansas is the iron man of the light-weight division.

More, he is a worthy opponent for Benny Leonard, champion of the 135 pounders, and richly deserves a chance at the title.

This is the verdict of Gotham boxing fans today following Kansas' victory over Willie Jackson in a colorful 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden witnessed by a crowd of fifteen thousand who gathered to see these two rivals for Leonard's crown in action.

Thru his victory the Buffalo scrapper—what a scrapper he is—has earned a right to a scrap with the champion under the direction of Tex Rickard who plans to stage another 135 pound title bout in the open air during the coming summer. And he will be a handful even for the crafty, hard hitting Leonard.

Kansas is one of the most rugged lightweights who has put up his hands in a New York ring in many, many years. He is a fighter from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head and he can take it.

Can Go By Boat From Cincinnati To Los Angeles

CINCINNATI, March 21.—Cincinnati to Pacific coast ports all-water service was inaugurated this morning with the departure for New Orleans of the steamer Queen City, in command of W. H. Rowe, with a miscellaneous cargo consigned to California cities. At New Orleans the cargo will be transferred to an ocean going vessel and reach its destination via the gulf and Panama canal to the rivers.

River men say rates by water are much cheaper than railroads can give. A feature of the trip will be the taking of moving pictures of the trip down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

BODIES OF FOUR ARE STILL THOT BURIED IN ARMOUR ELEVATOR

Inquiry Started By State Officials—Loss Will Reach $4,000,000

CHICAGO, March 21.—An official inquiry into the explosion which wrecked the great Armour grain company's elevator here Saturday night got under way today as rescuers sought in the debris for the bodies of four men believed still to be buried there.

Formal inquest over the two victims whose bodies have been recovered was to be held today.

An inquiry which is promised will be thorough was begun by state fire marshal John G. Gambier. Deputies assigned by Gambier will endeavor to learn if the blast was caused by improper conditions in the elevator or was the work of criminal agitators.

The four men whose bodies are believed to be in the ruins are Louis Reich, Arthur Boumann, M. J. Wiltz and Amil Marsell. A check of employees indicates these four men are the only ones unaccounted for.

The two men whose bodies have been found have been identified as Paul Bala and Henry Osterman.

That it may be several days before the bodies are found is the belief of rescuers who point out that the bodies might be in some of the flooded grain pits and would not be reached until the tangled and twisted girders had been cut away.

Estimates of the damage today place the total at approximately $4,000,000. Damage to the elevator is placed at nearly $2,000,000 while it is estimated that approximately $1,000,000 worth of grain was destroyed.

VOLCANO ON HIGH

SPOUTS LAVA LIKE

A HUGE FOUNTAIN

HILO, March 21.—The volcano of Kilauea is overflowing from the pit of Halemaumau. All of the trails in the old crater bottom have been destroyed.

Five flows are running north, south and west and a fountain of lava the largest in the volcano's history, is spouting high, surrounded by hundreds of other fountains. The lava lake rose eighty feet in eight hours.

The mountain flow is running at the rate of 40 miles an hour.

The outburst is believed by scientists to be due to an equinoctial change.

Police guards are holding hundreds of tourists and automobilists at a considerable distance from the scene because of the danger of a greater outburst. The eruption started just as a group of the members of the Chicago Athletic club arrived here from San Francisco on the steamer Hawkeye State.

FINDING NO WHISKEY

STARTS ROUGH HOUSE

LUDLOW, Ky., March 22.—Robert Laws, 30, Southern railroad conductor is in the hospital today seriously wounded from being beaten and shot by Charles Terry, 31, bartender at Chabert's cafe, following a fight in the cafe yesterday.

Terry is in jail. Terry says Laws and a companion demanded whiskey and when informed that he could get none, Laws threw a glass of mineral water, then a cuspidor on the counter. Terry then attacked him.

FROST IS PROBABLE ON HEELS OF WARM EQUINOCTIAL DAYS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22.—Those who yielded to the lure of warm caressing spring winds and "took 'em off" during the last few days, had better "put 'em back on."

This was the gist of a warning sounded by the official forecaster of the United States weather bureau today in predicting that the unprecedented warm weather which has prevailed generally over the eastern states and in many parts of the country for the last few days will come to an abrupt ending tonight.

The forecaster was asked whether spring "has come."

"It has not," he said emphatically and launched into a technical explanation of just what caused the summery breezes of palm Sunday which broke records in many regions along the Atlantic coast. The warm wave as officially explained, was blown up from the gulf regions and is scheduled to keep right going. Return currents from Canada and the Great Lakes will sweep over the Atlantic coast in retaliation from Maine to North Carolina and over the Mississippi valley region tonight. Temperature will lower rapidly and there may be frost.

CARDINAL DOUGHERTY

DONS THE RED ROBES

ROME, March 20. (delayed).—An impressive congregation of prelates and representatives of religious orders today heard Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, deliver an eloquent address in the Roman church of which he has become the titular head since his elevation to the sacred college.

The new American cardinal made an imposing figure in his red robes. He declared that the American college now constitutes the most important spiritual link between the U. S. and Rome. The service ended with a Te Deum.

Among those present were Monsignor Cerretti and Cardinal Von Faulhaber of Germany, who were elevated to the sacred college at the same time as Cardinal Dougherty.

EDDIE RICKENBACKER AWARDED WAR TROPHY BY U. S. GOVERNMENT

Famous American Ace and Major Chambers Presented Barograph From German Plane They Shot Down

OAKLAND, Cal., Mar. 21.—As a reminder of their victory over a German Hanover plane which they shot down intact—the only enemy plane capable of being flown after a victory—a plane from which much information of German air motors was learned, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker and Major Chambers, foremost among American aces, recently added to their collection of war souvenirs two tokens presented them by the United States government.

To Captain Rickenbacker went the barograph, or altitude recorder of the ship, and to Major Chambers the machine gun. The barograph record of the last German flight of the famous Hanover plane is of historical interest because it gives an accurate record of the aerial fight.

On the barograph record are the German letters "FLZABT D." which, translated, means a German airplane, instrument type D. The record is in meters.

The mute chronicle of the barograph of the flight shows that the Hanover took to the air at twenty minutes beyond the hour and climbed to an altitude of 1500 meters, or about 5000 feet. It was at this point that the big two-seater Hanover encountered the American ace of aces—Captain Eddie Rickenbacker.

According to Rickenbacker, the battle was an easy one. He was the one in which pilot and observers matched wits for position and firing angles.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

283.ADMINISTRATION'S BIG PROBLEM THIS WEEK IS OVERSEASWASHINGTON, March 22.—Reluctantly or not the intention of the Harding administration will be dragged away from the things domestic this week and turned to the biggest piece of unfinished business by the old regime—the league of nations and the adoption of a European policy. The arrival of Rene Viviani, the former French premier is going to take the spotlight temporarily at least from taxation, tariff, patronage and the thousand and one other things that have kept the new president and his advisors laboring many hours a day since March 4.Viviani is coming to the United States in the dark as far as knowing in advance what he may expect from the new administration, and the new administration is almost completely in the dark concerning M. Viviani.
James J. Jusserand, the French ambassador, it is true, conferred at the white house with President Hardingconcerning the extraordinary envoy's mission, but it is understood he was able to inform the executive but little outside of the fact the ex-premier was coming to "pay his respects."That M. Viviani's chief mission concerns the league of nations and America's attitude towards it, there is little doubt. Aside from this it is the conviction that ex-Premier Vivani's next big task is to get the moral support of the United States in the plans now of France and England in the effort to get Germany to pay the indemnity. France believes, whether rightly or wrongly, that if the United States had ratified the treaty, and joined the league, Germany never would have dared refuse the demands of the allies in the reparations settlement. Even now France believes, according to information reaching a number of Republican senators that if Washington can be prevailed upon to say something or do something that will show Germany the United States is still back of the allies, the right-about-face of the Berlin government will be swift and certain.This indication of American support could be given in various ways—
a presidential letter to the chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, a senate resolution, a white house communication abroad or by a mere announcement to the press following the Harding-Viviani conference.While Paris has seen fit to deny that M. Viviani's visit in any way concerns the $20,000,000,000 which France owes the United States, it is nevertheless considered certain in Washington that this debt problem will be taken up, it is closely allied in the French mind with the reparations settlement.Until Germany is forced to pay, France cannot reduce her debts to the United States, according to the French attitude, as M. Viviani is expected to advance it. Therefore if America wants her $20,000,000,000 then she must aid France in getting the money with which to pay it.Republican senators, particularly those irreconcilables like Borah, of Idaho, and Johnson of California, are regarding the forthcoming visit of M.
Viviani with intense interest. They believe the league to be "scrapped" in its entirety, lock, stock and barrel, and they view the ex-premier's mission with suspicion and distrust.They are merely biding their time to see what the ensuing weeks bring forth. Any attempts to flirt with the league will throw the whole matter into the senatorial arena once more,
that much is certain.

paper goes on to state:

"Since the birth of Christ, Germany must pay for every second that has elapsed the sum of three and one-half marks—and in 42 years at that."

If Germany were to pay in paper money, how long would it take to print it?" asks the pamphlet. This pamphlet was put out to convince the people that the allies' demand was not only wrong but impossible of fulfillment.

The present machines used in printing money print two bills at one operation," said the pamphlet. "Each note requires ten printing operations and a machine delivers 6,000 notes a day. At this rate it would take a single press 100,000 years to print enough money to pay indemnity in German currency. Or if it must be paid in 42 years more than 2,900 printing presses would have to be employed.

PARIS, March 22—The inter-allied Rhineland commissions scheme for imposing new customs duties on German goods along the Rhine to make up the indemnity demanded by the allied powers was approved by the council of ambassadors today.
